COLOR & STYLE

ADVICE FROM THE EXPERTS

Patricia Verlodt & Emily Videtto

Color & style go hand in hand when considering what shingle to use on your roof.

The color and style of your shingle are important! After all, your roof represents up to 40% of your home's curb appeal, so it will always have a big impact on your home's overall look.

When you look at home exterior color trends, you'll notice that they're typically much more muted than the color trends you see in fashion; for example, if bold greens are in the fashion magazines, you might see the introduction of new home exterior palettes in warm, earthy green tones. Why? Because bold green might not be "in" two years from now (likely not), but you will still have the same roof. Color choices in exteriors are long-term decisions, so make sure the palette that you select is not only one that fits your personality and taste today but also one that you'll enjoy ten years down the road.

- Observe how much of your roof is visible from the street or common view. A larger roof looks best in neutral tones. If the roof angle is normal or slight, you can use more colorful shingles or interesting patterns.
- Use colors in the same color family as the body of your house for a simple, non-accented combination. An example is a gray roof on a gray house, whether light or dark gray. Trim in white or black will keep it understated.
- Use bright colors to make a design statement. For example, a green roof on a red brick house or a red roof on a gray house.
- And remember, follow your instinct. Choose the color and style that make you comfortable. After all, you're the one looking at it every time you come home!

When it comes to the style of your shingle, it's important to think about the overall look and shape of your home. If your roof has a low pitch, the shingle profile will be more important than the shape; for a roof with a steep pitch, a unique design or color pattern may be more important. If you have a large roof surface, you don't want the color pattern of your shingle to be too busy (it can be overwhelming!). On the other hand, a larger surface gives you a great opportunity to really change your home's look. So, make sure the design and color you select integrate extremely well with the rest of your house.

- Choose a shingle that complements your home's architectural style. For example, for a Colonial home, select a shingle with a clean line that complements the home's design. A Victorian house could take on a more colorful or complex design.
- The use of colors and textures can create a comfortable feel for your residence. For example, if focusing on the exterior of a Shingle Style home, adding color and textured design elements make the home much more approachable.

Patricia Verlodt has been responsible for coloring products for many Fortune 500 companies; she has a specialty in exterior products. Her work has been featured in major newspapers as well as in many magazines such as Real Simple, Better Homes and Gardens, and Forbes.

Emily Videtto is a highly respected and sought-after product and design expert with over a decade of experience in the building materials industry. She is also Vice President, Shingles and New Product Development at GAF. Emily has been seen on HGTV's Curb Appeal, The Balancing Act, Niki Taylor's Having it All, and Orange County Choppers.
